Nawkaw Corporation to give masonry staining presentation

Nawkaw Corporation President and CEO, Russell Gray, will be a guest speaker on masonry staining during the 2006 Traditional Building Conference in Washington D.C.

Watkinsville, GA - September 13, 2006 - Nawkaw Corporation will be represented at the 2006 Traditional Building Exhibition and Conference by President and CEO, Russell Gray. The conference will open October 4, with Nawkaw's presentation scheduled for Saturday, October 7th at 9:30 am at the Washington Hilton Hotel and Towers. This year, Nawkaw has been chosen to present one of the world-class seminars, giving attendees the opportunity to earn Continuing Education Credits. Nawkaw Corporation has long been an industry leader in the masonry color treatment field. Since their inception in 1987, they have become experts in color treatment and matching of absorbent masonry materials, such as brick, block, concrete, pre-cast, mortar, stucco, and stone. This will be a great opportunity for the building restoration community to interact with Nawkaw on a more personal level.

Russell Gray, as owner of Nawkaw Corporation, developed the company's proprietary system of staining masonry. In the past 17 years the company has grown into a franchised business with locations in Australia, Canada, South Korea and the USA. Gray is internationally known as an industry expert on masonry stain, and will be speaking about past Nawkaw projects and their applications, including the restoration of a centuries old building in Australia.
